

Dear Friend of History,

- Do you enjoy learning about the unique history of Summit County?
- Do you enjoy hearing about the people who lived here years ago?
- Do you want to assure that this heritage is preserved for future generations?

*If you join the Society,
you will be supporting:*

- Our efforts to preserve and maintain structures such as the Dillon Schoolhouse, Myers Cabin, Honeymoon Cabin, Montezuma Schoolhouse, and Rice Barn
- The transformation of the Schoolhouse Museum into a living classroom providing educational programs for children who visit the museum
- The establishment of the Rice Barn as an interpretive site for the high altitude ranching and agriculture that was so important to the economy of Summit County
- The digitization of our valuable collection of maps and photographs so that they are available for serious as well as more casual researchers

PARTNERS IN HISTORY

The Summit Historical Society works closely with other groups such as the Breckenridge Heritage Alliance and the Frisco Historic Park & Museum to bring to life the exciting history of Summit County.

Then the Summit Historical Society is the organization for you. Celebrating its 50th anniversary in 2016, the Society has been a leader in preserving our heritage and supporting educational programs that teach visitors and residents alike about that legacy. Our mission includes collecting, preserving, interpreting, and disseminating the rich and unique history of Summit County—a history filled with stories of miners and merchants, ranchers and entrepreneurs, and men, women, and children who arrived hoping to stay—some for a brief period—some for a lifetime. Our historical buildings, artifacts, and documents tell their story.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

The Society welcomes volunteers—men, women, and youngsters. We depend heavily on our volunteers for various tasks. We need help with special events, publicity, fundraising, maintenance and upkeep on our sites, archive and collection management, grant writing, staffing the SHS table at the Dillon Farmers’ Market, leading boat tours on Lake Dillon, and guiding visitors through the Schoolhouse Museum. If you can give of your talents and time, please call the SHS office at 970-468-2207.
